

Contact:
Sarah DiMondi
302.674.2111 ext. 105
sdimondi@biggsmuseum.org

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – January 8, 2008

Evening of Artful Dining: Biggs Museum of American Art

Dover, DE: The Biggs Museum of American Art cordially invites you to join us at the Biggs Museum on Friday, February 29, 2008 at 6:00 p.m. for an evening of Artful Dining. Guests will enjoy the unique experience of dining in the Biggs Museum galleries while enjoying the delightful music of First State Strings. A delectable dinner with a Delaware theme will be provided by Wesley Catering. Following the meal, Donald Fennimore, Author of Delaware Silver and recently retired Curator of Metals at Winterthur Museum, will offer a history of silver manufactured in Delaware. This presentation will conclude with a preview of the Biggs Museum's new collection of Colonel Kenneth P. and Regina Brown Silver and the Silver Study Center which will open on Wednesday, March 5, 2008 at 5:30 p.m. Please join us and enjoy some of the regional specialties to be served such as, Battered Oysters with Lemon Remoulade, Apple and Scrapple Crepe with Honey Syrup, Dijon Crusted Chicken Breast, and Jumbo Lump Crab Cakes with Chipotle Remoulade. The cost is $75/70 members. To RSVP for this special event, please call 674-2111 ext. 101 by February 20, 2008. Artful Dining is a fundraiser for the Biggs Museum. Proceeds from this event support exhibitions and educational programming.

#

The Biggs Museum is currently showcasing Greetings from Delaware and Other Artist Communities from November 7, 2007 through February 25, 2008. This exhibition features hand-made greeting cards by some of the most important Delaware and American artists of the first half of the twentieth century. Always on the first Saturday of each month, children ages 5-10 can participate in Biggs Kids. Biggs Museum of American Art, 406 Federal Street, Dover, DE, (302) 674-2111, www.biggsmuseum.org new hours: M-S 9-4:30 p.m., Sun. 1:30-4:30 p.m