FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – February 8, 2008

Dover, DE – On March 1st, join the Museum for Biggs Kids, a free program for children ages 5-10 held on the first Saturday of every month. This program is designed to enrich children's understanding of art in the world around them. A segment of each program is devoted to teaching children about museums and the importance of museum etiquette. The program is open to the public and is held in the program gallery at the Museum from 2:00 to 3:30p.m. On March 1st, the children will learn about the history of silver jewelry and create their own rings, bracelets and necklaces using silver-plated wire. This is an activity in collaboration with the upcoming exhibition, Delaware Silver, at the Biggs Museum. This exhibition opens on Wednesday, March 5, 2008. Pre-registration is required. Please call 674-2111. This program is supported by Kraft Foods, Yellowbook, the Delaware Division of the Arts, and the Division of Historical and Cultural Affairs.
